

5. Mustard gas treatment.

A further cytological test places doubt on last year's report of a ring of four chromosomes in one of the plants with partial sterility derived from nitrogen mustard gas treatment of pollen. (See 1951 News Letter)