

1. Inbreeding with "Santa Rosa" and "Amparo," two commercial varieties, is being carried on in order to obtain white endosperm strains to be used in single and double crosses. Some white endosperm strains introduced from Mexico were mixed and gave a population very promising for our conditions.