

4. Big rings in barley.

There may be some interest in the information that in barley a homozygous stock has been obtained which gives a ring of 6 in crosses.

Tests using closely linked genetic markers are being used in corn and in barley to aid in selecting the desired crossovers.

Also the ring of 6 barley has been irradiated.