

1. Linkage of Co.

In the News Letter No. 24 (1950), I described plants with chocolate colored pollen due to a gene Co which is located in the 10th chromosome and is linked with the gene li. In further research a linkage of 21.7% between Co and sp_2 has been found.